Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1267 (1999) concerning Afghanistan

Note verbale dated 17 April 2001 from the Permanent Mission of Ireland to the United Nations addressed to the Chairman of the Committee

The Permanent Mission of Ireland to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Chairman of the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1267 (1999) and, referring to his note dated 19 January 2001, has the honour to communicate the following information concerning the implementation of United Nations sanctions against Afghanistan, as established by the Security Council in its resolution 1333 (2000).

The Council of the European Union, following the adoption of its common position of 26 February 2001, adopted on 6 March 2001 a regulation that prohibits the export of certain goods and services to Afghanistan, strengthens the flight ban and extends the freeze of funds and other financial resources in respect of the Taliban of Afghanistan, in accordance with Security Council resolution 1333 (2000). The said Council regulation, which is enclosed for your information, has been in force since 10 March 2001 and repeals the previous regulation on this subject.*

The Government of Ireland are in the process of enacting appropriate regulatory measures to give effect to the provisions of resolution 1333 (2000). These measures will also supplement the provisions of the regulation of the Council of the European Union, adopted on 6 March 2001, which is binding in its entirety and is directly applicable in Ireland.
